Policy for Liquor transition

Presently, the wholesales are being managed by the Excise Group Licensee having control over the distribution of IMFL, Beer, Wine as well as Country Liquor. In the new system effective from 1.4.2006, IMFL, Beer trade is to be through individual retail licenses and wholesale system shall be abolished.

This calls for designing of a system and procedure to take care of existing stocks that may lie unsold with the RSBCL Depot or wholesalers of retailers.

The following policy is proposed in this respect:

(1) Excise Duty paid IMFL and Beer would be taken over in stock by the Rajasthan State Beverages Corporation Ltd. (RSBCL), from the wholesaler on 01.04.2006. This taken over stock would be backed by the following documents:

   a) Details as to cost and duties paid,

   b) Copies of Invoices, and

   c) Challans in support of duty paid on these items (In case challans are not available, verification certificate from the concerned DEO must be made available).

(2) Payment would be released as per the RSBCL policy, i.e. payment against sales.

(3) The price would be enforced taking the lower amount of the following two, i.e.

   a) Purchase price paid by the outgoing wholesaler, and

   b) Prices approved by the RSBCL.

Complete amount of Excise Duty at new rates as per the Excise Policy for the financial year 2006-07, would be collected from the retailers who want to purchase the stock. Of the duty so received, the amount of duty already paid by the outgoing operator would be remitted to them and the differential excise duty amount would be deposited with the Excise Department.

Before affecting the transfer of these goods to RSBCL, the outgoing operators (wholesalers) would have to get the transfer permits issued by the Excise Department by paying the requisite transfer fee (Rs. 4.00 per BL i.e. Rs. 36 per case of quarts).
Liquor Transition Policy

In case the outgoing operators want the RSBCL to physically take over the goods, they will have to transport the same to RSBCL at their cost and risk.

If approved, by the Board these guidelines on the above procedure may be issued to all the existing operators (wholesalers and bond managers)
